This is not a typical HR workshop. Your questions about Diversity & Inclusion will be answered as we move through a rapid fire presentation of 60 Tips on Diversity and Inclusion. No matter where you and your firm or law department are on the spectrum of making Diversity and Inclusion imperative in your business, you are bound to walk away with at least a few tips and several excellent resources for use in your world. Join us to expand your knowledge on the topic and move your firm or department ahead on Diversity and Inclusion. You'll leave with a copy of the presentation and a list of resources.

This presentation will count towards 75 minutes of HR credit for CLM Recertification or towards the additional hours needed by Functional Specialists applying for the exam, as long as HR is not your area of specialty.
